

2019 EUA-CDE THEMATIC WORKSHOP

Inter-institutional Collaboration in Doctoral Education

Hosted by VU Amsterdam

17-18 January 2019 | Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Draft programme as of 7 January 2019

The 2019 EUA-CDE Thematic Workshop will focus on inter-institutional collaboration in doctoral education. Participants will reflect on how universities with different goals and levels of development can benefit from different forms of collaboration. This includes between universities, as well as other institutions doing research at the local, national and international level. The workshop will also address related challenges and will provide an occasion to identify new collaboration opportunities between EUA-CDE members.

Thursday 17 January 2019

09:30 – 10:30	Registration
10:30 – 11:00	Welcome address and presentation of the programme <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Albert Feilzer, Dean for Internationalisation, VU University Amsterdam, the Netherlands - Luke Georghiou, EUA-CDE Steering Committee Chair
11:00 – 12:15	Plenary Session I Added value of inter-institutional collaboration in doctoral education This plenary discussion will focus on the question of how critical mass and diversity in research environments and other preconditions for successful doctoral education can be developed through inter-institutional collaboration. It will introduce the key questions that will be discussed during the workshop. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - An Jansen, Research Policy Adviser, KU Leuven, Belgium - Robert Harris, Central Director of Doctoral studies, Karolinska University, President of Orpheus Network, Sweden - Izabela Grabowska, Head of Interdisciplinary Doctoral Program, SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities, Poland Chair: Alexander Hasgall, Head EUA-CDE
12:15 – 13:30	Group photo, followed by lunch
13:30 – 14:30	Plenary Session II Joint doctoral supervision: Does it meet the expectations? This plenary session will explore to what extent joint doctoral supervision is a successful way of establishing inter-institutional collaboration and how it can be best organised. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pirjo Nikander, Research Director, University of Tampere, Finland - Erika Kothe, Professor, University of Jena, Chair UniWIND, Germany Chair: Paolo Biscari, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member

14:30 – 15:00	Coffee break
15:00 – 16:30	Parallel Working Groups I Each parallel working group will reflect on an aspect of inter-institutional collaboration, identifying good practices, policies and structures that have had a positive impact. They will also address potential challenges and obstacles. The working groups will start with one or two short introductory presentations. A. Starting inter-institutional collaboration The variety of inter-institutional cooperation patterns implemented by institutions to create opportunities for doctoral candidates Chair: Hans-Joachim Bungartz, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Finance doctoral program collaboration within Finland and among the Nordic countries Mikko Leppämäki, Aalto University, Finland Timo Korkeamäki, Hanken School of Economics, Finland Networks as enablers for inter-institutional collaboration at doctorate level Amaya Mendikoetxea, Autonomous University of Madrid, Spain B. Collaboration with non-university partners Universities engaged in collaboration with the non-academic sector Chair: Murat Özgören, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member The PhDs@Work project: enhancing career development of early stage researchers through interuniversity and intersectoral cooperation Bibiane Fréché, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium Engineering Science Lyon Tohoku joint lab for Materials and Structure under Extreme Conditions, ELyTMaX Jean-Yves Cavaillé, University of Lyon, France

	C. Opportunities and challenges for inter-institutional collaboration: research integrity We discuss the strengths and problems of inter-institutional collaboration, taking into account its effects on research integrity Chair: Barbara Dooley, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Joint degree programmes: best practices and challenges from the Wageningen perspective Gab van Winkel, Wageningen University, Netherlands Research integrity challenges: the case of Vrije Universiteit Brussel in relation to international and Flanders regulations Karen Francois, Free University Brussels, Belgium D. International collaboration International cooperation strategies are presented as an opportunity for academic mobility, joint research and professional development of doctoral candidates Chair: Mossadek Talby, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Disseminating scientific outcomes of the So.Re.Com. Joint-Innovative Doctoral Program by sharing and developing the research infrastructure SoReCom “A.S. de Rosa” @-Library Annamaria Silvana de Rosa, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy
16:30 – 17:15	Plenary Session III Flash presentations (part 1 of 2) In this session, participants will present examples of collaboration in doctoral education or concrete proposals for future collaboration during a five-minute talk. Participants may address questions like: Did collaboration start bottom-up through personal contacts or top-down in response to institutional strategies? Which motivations have driven subsequent developments? What are the lessons learnt and the outcomes achieved? Which questions are still open? What is the experience of doing a PhD in a collaborative scheme? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Gotzone Barandika, University of the Basque Country, Spain - Anna Kolberg Buverud, University of Oslo, Norway - Isabelle Halleux, University of Liège, Belgium - Horia Iovu, University Politehnica of Bucharest, Romania - Francesc Sepulcre, Polytechnic University of Catalonia, Spain Chair: Edwin Constable, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member
19:00	Workshop dinner Hotel Novotel Amsterdam City

Friday 18 January 2019

09:00 – 10:15	Plenary Session IV The role of doctoral education in European university networks This session will address, from a policy perspective, how doctoral education can serve to bring institutions, doctoral candidates and other stakeholders together. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Gareth O’Neill, President of Eurodoc - Stijn Delaure, Policy Officer, Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Unit, European Commission - Barbara Daniel, National Coordinator, EURAXESS Luxembourg Network, Luxembourg - Luke Georghiou, EUA-CDE Steering Committee Chair Chair: Lidia Borrell-Damian, Director for Research and Innovation, EUA
10:15 – 10:45	Coffee break
10:45 – 12:15	Parallel Working Groups II A. Starting inter-institutional collaboration The variety of inter-institutional cooperation patterns implemented by institutions to create opportunities for doctoral candidates Chair: Hans-Joachim Bungartz, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Ireland's First National Survey of Postgraduate Research (PGR) Student Experiences: A story of Partnership and Inter-institutional Collaboration Emer Cunningham, University College Dublin, Ireland Rachel Keegan, Dublin City University, Ireland B. Collaboration with non-university partners Universities engaged in collaboration with the non-academic sector Chair: Murat Özgören, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Inter-Institutional Collaboration in Doctoral Education – the Umeå Experience Benkt Wiklund, Umea University, Sweden Driver’s Seat – Industry-Sponsored Doctorates and Research Integrity Daniel Müller, University of Siegen, Germany C. Opportunities and challenges for inter-institutional collaboration: governance and capacity-building We discuss the strengths and problems of inter-institutional collaboration, taking into account its effects on capacity-building Chair: Barbara Dooley, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Cooperation by integration. Some remarks on the Berlin research area Markus Edler, Free University Berlin, Germany The Power and Problems of International Collaborative Doctoral Education Que Anh Dang, Coventry University, United Kingdom

	D. International collaboration International cooperation strategies are presented as an opportunity for academic mobility, joint research and professional development of doctoral candidates Chair: Mossadek Talby, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Cluster approach for industrial, research and educational partnership of classical universities Romanna Safir, Peoples' Friendship University of Russia, Russia
12:15 – 13:15	Lunch
13:15 – 13:45	Plenary Session V Flash presentations (part 2 of 2) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Helena Karlström, Karolinska Institute, Sweden - Jef Schrooten, KU Leuven, Belgium - Antonio Teixeira, University of Aveiro, Portugal - Hannelore de Grande, Vrije University of Brussels, Belgium Chair: Edwin Constable, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member
13:45 – 14:45	Plenary Session VI Report and discussion on the key findings of the working groups The chairs of the working groups will summarise the key findings of the workshop proceedings. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Hans-Joachim Bungartz, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member - Murat Özgören, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member - Barbara Dooley, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member - Mossadek Talby, EUA-CDE Steering Committee member Chair: Luke Georghiou, EUA-CDE Steering Committee Chair
14:45 – 15:00	Closing Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Luke Georghiou, EUA-CDE Steering Committee Chair - Frans A.M. Sniijders, Director International Office, VU University Amsterdam, the Netherlands