LEARNING FOR CHANGE!

TRANSFORMATIVE EDUCATION INNOVATION LAB

Hosted by the Ulysseus Innovation Hub on Socio-Ecological Sustainability
@ Center for Interdisciplinary Sustainability Research (ZIN), University of Münster

The “Transformative Education Innovation Lab” (TEIL) is a peer-to-peer exchange format on higher educational pedagogies in the field of transformative education for sustainable development.

The aim is to inspire each other by sharing and experiencing transformative educational formats and methods that stimulate learners, foster agency and have an impact.

WHY?

Participants of the webinar series will be inspired and encouraged to integrate transformative education into their own teaching.

The TEIL aims to create impact by:

- Advancing Transformative Education
- Strengthening Transnational, Intercultural, Interdisciplinary and Transdisciplinary Collaboration
- Co-Creating Socio-Ecological Transformation

WHO?

We invite peer educators, lecturers and researchers who are interested in transformative education, education for sustainable development, global citizenship education, pedagogy of liberation, peace education and related fields to participate in TEIL.

The TEIL is a joint activity by colleagues who are collaborating in the Ulysseus R&I Groups TEdInnoLab, FUTURABILITIES and ARISE and is realised and supported by the insitutions listed below.

HOW?

The webinar is based on experiential learning and each session is designed as an interactive format, including hands-on exercises and experiences.
Through facilitating dialogue and exchange on a variety of teaching approaches, participants are encouraged to reflect on transformative education and to transfer of new ideas into their own teaching contexts.

Each session participants will experience different approaches to transformative education as if they were students in the colleague’s classroom.

WHEN & WHERE?

The online webinar series will take place monthly – starting in November 2026, runnig until October 2027.

The sessions are conducted on Tuesday afternoons from 16:00-18:00 CET, in the first semester on:

3.11.26 / 15.12.26 / 12.1.27 / 2.2.27 / 2.3.27

After registration the zoom link will be send, materials will be shared during/after the sessions.
