

EUA Leadership Development Programme

Elevate your leadership and shape the future of your institution!

Sharpen your leadership skills

Forge meaningful connections

Drive impactful change

EUA is launching a pilot Leadership Development Programme in 2025, designed to empower senior leaders in European universities. This dynamic programme fosters exceptional leadership skills with a distinct European perspective, bringing together leaders to form a unique community allowing for open exchange and collaboration.

Why choose EUA's Leadership Development Programme?

This pioneering programme, the first of its kind for senior university leaders in Europe, offers a unique blend of international insights and tailored support for EUA members, leveraging EUA's extensive experience and network in fostering collaboration across diverse European higher education systems. The tailored programme takes a holistic approach and is designed to help you:

- Sharpen your leadership skills through a comprehensive curriculum covering critical topics like governance, foresight and strategic decision making.
- Forge meaningful connections with European peers, fostering a vibrant community of leaders dedicated to delivering transformation in higher education.
- Drive impactful change and navigate complex challenges within your institution by gaining fresh perspectives and practical tools.

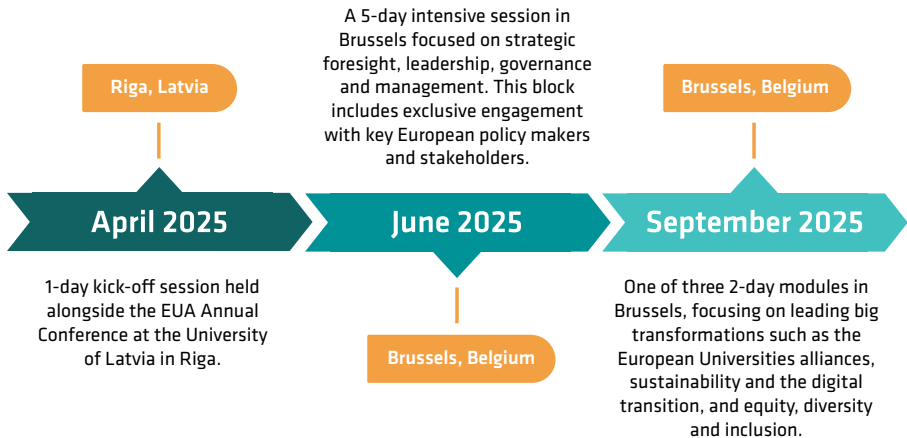

Programme highlights

- The latest research and experience: Informed by the most current European-wide research on leadership and transformation, developed by an experienced advisory board and expert group from across Europe.
- Cutting-edge insights: Exclusive content on European policies and trends in learning and teaching, research and innovation, quality assurance and governance.
- European policy engagement: Direct engagement with key European policy makers, including the European Commission and the European Parliament, gaining exclusive insight into the future of higher education policies.

Programme structure

Kicking off in April 2025 at EUA's Annual Conference at the University of Latvia in Riga, The Leadership Development Programme will feature a dynamic mix of online and in-person sessions delivered through expert input, real-world cases studies, and interactive activities.

Keep an eye on EUA's website for news about the programme.

Who should apply?

Participants must be members of a university senior management team with responsibility for strategic decision-making.

Applications open in September 2024. Sign up here to receive the latest updates.

